Hixburg

Hixburg, August 9.- Mr. Walter Carson will preach at Walker's Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening, August 14, at 8:00 o'clock. Dr. Twyman Williams, pastor, is vacationing in the home of his son in Lexington.

Worship through music was Christine Dickerson's, pianist at Rocky Baptist Church, idea when she gathered sacred music from friends and came down to bring inspiration and cheer to a shut-in. Miss Maggie Ho., on Friday afternoon, She played the accompaniments and sang.

Her plans to do religious work when school days are over.

Mr. Otis Gilliams, of Prospect was taken to a Lynchburg Hospital for treatment last week.

Mr. Herbert Burrell, who is also in a Lynchburg hospital, is reported to be somewhat better.

Two weeks ago, Mrs. Gladys Baldwin underwent surgery at the Washington Hospital Center. She continues quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Baldwin go up to visit his mother twice a week.

Relatives of Commander and Mrs. Patrick Lair, Mr. and Mrs. George Jacovy and son, Johnny, of Detroit, Mich., came on Monday and were over-night guests of the Lairs.

Michael Latz visited in Norfolk on Sunday.

Anne Martin will return to her home on August 12, after attending summer school at Madison College.

Mr. and Mrs. George Abbitt Terry, of Maryland, called on the Willis Hixes Friday afternoon.

The Rev. Leslie and Mrs. Hart and the Rev. Robert Stevns were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Covington on Tuesday evening.

The Rev. Stevns, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Hopewell, was guest speaker at the revival at Elon Baptist Church last week.

John Garrett had not been to Hixburg for 16 years, but he had a fondness for the old Ford place, where he was reared. On Thursday, with his wife and daughter, Mary Sue, he arrived at the sturdy old building. Cumberland, the courteous Negro caretaker, showed them around.

Being a real estate dealer, he and his wife appreciated the charm of the more than a hundred years' old house, with a lane of boxwood, and the Appomattox River flowing in front.

Although very old, this structure was well built by a Mr. Woodson. Mr. Silus Biglow came along and married Mr. Woodson's daughter. Their son, Charles' name was changed from "Biglow" to "Morton." Dr. Charles Morton was a practicing physician in Pamplin many years.

Later, Mr. Billy Ford bought the property, and reared his family there.

Now, it is the summer home of Mr. Hans van Nes Allen, of Tulsa. He has made many improvements, such as a swimming place, a good road, a bridle path, etc.
